

Introduction

This corpora was hammered out over 5 months by the following members of the IM corpora committee: Airleas, Auromax, Axgar, Brennan, Cedric, Jabberwock, Michael, Owl, and Wolfram. I would like to offer my personal thanks to all of them. I would also like to thank Emperor Belgarion and Prime Minister Cullum whose support was invaluable.

This corpora largely follows the format seen in other Amtgard corpora's and we have resisted making any substantial changes in awards or other things that transfer across Amtgard. The primary aim of this document was to make our corpora usable as a guide for new IM groups to follow in running their shires. This revision describes how a shire of the IM should be run.

Previously, our groups were trying to run themselves by following the Burning Lands corpora off the net. That document is only written with Kingdom sized groups in mind. It also has significant differences from both the IM corpora and the way IM government was actually run. Hopefully we have solved some of these issues.

This corpora is laid out with each type of officer getting a section and the different levels getting subsections within that framework. That is, all the leaders from Emperor/Empress through Sheriff are in one section while all the consorts are in the next section. This allowed us to stick to the format seen in other Amtgard corporas while still spelling out the exact powers and responsibilities at each level.

We hardly expect that this document is so perfect that the changing needs of a dynamic empire will not necessitate further change but we are proud of it and hope that it will serve our beloved homeland for many years.

CC Chair

By the will of the ratifying althing, this corpora will be modified by an addendum that will add a board of directors for the Iron Mountains and will require that we become a formally recognized entity under mundane tax law. This addendum, once written, will need to be formally accepted by the Imperial Althing.

1. Club Membership – For the purposes of identifying the Empire and its members as an independent corporate entity under state and national law, there will be three types of membership within the Empire.
  - 1.A. Contributing Members – Individuals who are contributing members of one of the core IM provinces will be considered contributing members of the Empire. A core IM province is any province that is located within 150 miles of the Denver city limits. These provinces may not (under the Amtgard contract) become kingdoms in their own right and are thus fully integrated into the Empire. For more distant provinces, see Section 21 (Sponsored Provinces). Contributing membership in a province requires the following criteria.
    - 1.A.a. Must have a waiver signed and on file with the provincial record-keeper.
    - 1.A.b. Must be dues paid in the province during the current reign.
    - 1.A.c. Must be at least 14 years of age.
    - 1.A.d. Must have gained attendance in the province at least 6 times in the last six months.
    - 1.A.e. Must have been a contributing, associate, or populous member of one of the provinces of the Iron Mountains for the preceding six months or must be entirely new to Amtgard.
    - 1.A.f. Must abide by the Amtgard Rules of Play as well as all mundane laws while engaged in Amtgard activities.
  - 1.B. Contributing membership in a core province translates to contributing membership to the Empire as a whole and entitles you to the following Imperial privileges.
    - 1.B.a. May vote in provincial elections and althings in that province.
    - 1.B.b. May run for office in that province (within the further criteria laid out for the specific office).
    - 1.B.c. May receive one copy of the rulebook and corpora per reign as required.
    - 1.B.d. Shall be entitled to receive a copy of each issue of the provincial newsletter (if any exists).
    - 1.B.e. Shall have their attendance and award status tracked by the provincial record-keeping officer.
  - 1.C. Contributing membership in a core province translates to contributing membership to the Empire as a whole and entitles you to the following Imperial privileges.
    - 1.C.a. May vote in Imperial elections and althings.
    - 1.C.b. May run for Imperial offices or a seat on the BOD (within the further criteria laid out for the specific office).
    - 1.C.c. Shall be entitled to receive a copy of each issue of the Imperial newsletter.
  - 1.D. Associate Membership – Members of the Empire of the Iron Mountains may only have one home province within the Empire where they are considered a contributing member. However, individuals may be associate members of several provinces within the Empire. Associate membership requires the following criteria:
    - 1.D.a. Must have a waiver signed and on file with the provincial record-keeper.
    - 1.D.b. Must be dues paid in that province during the current reign.

- 1.D.c. Must be at least 14 years of age.
- 1.D.d. Must have gained attendance in the province at least 6 times in the last six months.
- 1.D.e. Must have been a contributing, associate or populous member of one of the provinces of the Iron Mountains for the preceding six months.
- 1.D.f. Must abide by the Amtgard Rules of Play as well as all mundane law while engaged in Amtgard activities.
- 1.E. Associate membership in a province entitles you to the following within that province:
  - 1.E.a. May vote in provincial elections and althings within that province.
  - 1.E.b. Shall be entitled to receive a copy of each issue of the provincial newsletter (if any exists).
- 1.F. Individuals may only change their home province once every six months. When an individual changes his home province the change does not go into effect until the record-keeping officers of both affected provinces have been informed.
- 1.G. Individuals who do not pay dues will be considered non-paying members or populace. Non-paying members may attend Amtgard game-days, feasts, camp-outs, and other activities. They do not have any voting rights in their province or in the Empire as a whole, nor may they run for or hold any club office. They must meet the following limited criteria:
  - 1.G.a. Must have a waiver signed and on file with the provincial record-keeper.
  - 1.G.b. Must abide by the Amtgard Rules of Play as well as all mundane law while engaged in Amtgard activities.
- 1.H. Members of the populace of a province are entitled to the following limited benefit within their home province:
  - 1.H.a. Shall have their attendance and award status tracked by the provincial record-keeping officer.
  - 1.H.b. Members who pay dues in a province but are considered populace because they do not meet attendance requirements will still be entitled to receive one copy of the rulebook and corpora per reign as required and a copy of each issue of the provincial newsletter (if any exists).
- 2. Attendance Credits
  - 2.A. Attendance
    - 2.A.a. An attendance, or attendance credit, requires one to sign the attendance sheet at the park or event maintained by the local Prime Minister. Specific exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis by the local or Imperial Prime Minister.
  - 2.B. Class Credits
    - 2.B.a. If you travel more than 200 miles (one way) you can get one extra credit for a single day event. As with everything else in this section this is limited by 2.B.f.
    - 2.B.b. Provincial leaders may approve extra credits but may not exceed the limits in 2.B.f.
    - 2.B.c. Fighter Practices give you 1/4 credit a practice. Any class you are eligible for, no limits aside from those in 2.B.f.
    - 2.B.d. One credit is given out per week for normal Amtgard weekly game-days.

- 2.B.e. Interkingdom or multi-day events give you one credit per day unless your provincial monarch or the Emperor/Empress says otherwise.
- 2.B.f. Using any or all of these sources there is a limit of 6 class credits per month, unless there are five Saturdays or five Sundays in that month in which case the absolute limit is 7 class credits for that month. Credit may only be given for a class that was actually played except when special events such as tournaments and quests preclude all battlegames or when taking fighter practice credit. In these cases the credit may be taken in any class you are eligible for. Monsters must always be played for credit to be given in this class.
- 2.C. Sign-in or voting credits
  - 2.C.a. Must have signed in at any IM-affiliated provinces or event at least 6 times in the last 6 months to vote in Imperial elections.
  - 2.C.b. Must be dues paid in any core IM province to vote in Imperial elections.
  - 2.C.c. Must have signed-in in a province or event at least 6 times in the last 6 months to vote in that province's elections.
  - 2.C.d. Must be dues paid in a province to vote in that Province's elections.
- 3. Dues and the Policies of the Treasury
  - 3.A. Dues shall be paid to the provincial level record-keeping officer.
  - 3.B. Dues shall consist of $5 per provincial reign and will grant voting membership (contributing or associate as appropriate) within the province during that reign.
  - 3.C. Individuals do not pay dues directly to the Empire.
  - 3.D. Donations may be made to either the Empire or to a province. Donations directly to the Empire should be given to the Imperial Prime Minister and provincial donations should be made to the provincial record-keeper. Donations are money given, over and above the dues structure, for which no dues credit is taken. Provincial donations need not be forwarded to the Empire and are not taxed in any way.
  - 3.E. For taxation, each province will owe money to the Empire at the beginning of the Imperial Reign (within 2 weeks after the coronation event). This tax is based on the number of dues paid members at the current time. Forty percent of each contributing and associate member's dues will be paid to the Empire. This is how the individual's Imperial dues are paid and this process entitles the member to the benefits of Imperial Membership.
  - 3.F. If a province cannot pay this taxation, the Empire has the right to withhold whatever is owed next time disbursement happens. Repeated failure to pay this taxation to the Empire may constitute grounds for withdrawing Imperial support from a province, although this would currently require the approval of the Imperial Althing (Section 13.A)
- 4. Disbursement of Imperial Excess
  - 4.A. Since much of the life of the Empire will go on at the provincial level and since money sitting in the bank doesn't really do us any good; the Empire will periodically disburse excess monies back to the provinces.
  - 4.B. At the beginning of each Imperial reign, if there is any money in the treasury above $5000, the Empire will distribute it to the core provinces.
    - 4.B.a. The one exception to this is the Empire may keep an additional amount in the treasury in order to maintain a minimum balance in the Imperial Bank Account (this amount is in addition to the amount given in section 4.B.) This money may never be spent and must be kept just to maintain the minimum balance. If this ever becomes unnecessary (changing to a bank without a minimum balance) this money must be dispersed to the subgroups as outlined in 4.C at the next scheduled disbursement.

4.C. Each core province will receive shares of the excess based on size. Duchies will receive three shares, baronies two shares and shires one share.

4.D. If the Imperial Prime Minister is unable to reach a province to give them their disbursement by the end of the Imperial Reign, the money shall be returned to the Imperial Treasury. The Imperial Prime Minister must make a reasonable attempt to get in contact with the province, as determined by the Emperor, for the funds to be returned to the Imperial Treasury.

5. Provinces

5.A. There are two kinds of provinces in the Empire of the Iron Mountains. The two types are core provinces and sponsored provinces.

5.A.a. A core province consists of any province that is part of the Iron Mountains and is within 150 miles of the Denver city limits.

5.A.b. A sponsored province is any other province that is part of the Iron Mountains. These provinces are discussed more fully under Section 21.

5.B. Both core and sponsored provinces come in three types based on size.

5.B.a. Duchies must have at least 40 different people per month claiming the group as a home province. This number includes both contributing members and populace but a player must sign-in to be counted. Associate members are not counted as part of this total. To be elevated to the level of a duchy the province must have been part of the Empire for two years.

5.B.b. Baronies must have at least 20 different people per month claiming the group as a home province. This number includes both contributing members and populace but a player must sign-in to be counted. Associate members are not counted as part of this total. To be elevated to the level of a barony the province must have been part of the Empire for one year.

5.B.c. Shires must have at least 5 different people per month claiming the group as a home province. This number includes both contributing members and populace but a player must sign-in to be counted. Associate members are not counted as part of this total.

5.C. Elevation

5.C.a. Any group may petition to grow in size as long as they can prove their readiness to the Emperor/Empress and the Imperial PM. They need to prove that they have met the attendance requirements for 3 months. Both the Emperor/Empress and the Imperial PM must agree upon the promotion.

5.C.b. New shires may be recognized in the same way. Shires do not need to meet the minimum size requirement for three months but only at the time of recognition.

5.D. Demotion - If a province fails to meet its required size for twelve consecutive months, the Emperor/Empress and the Imperial PM may put that group on probation for six months. If the province cannot improve its numbers and meet minimum size requirements for at least two of the six months in the probationary period, then the Imperial Althing may vote to demote them in size. A province may only drop one size level at a time.

5.D.a. A provincial group may, by althing decision, voluntarily self-demote to a smaller sized group. The vote to demote must pass by a margin of 60% and the proposal must meet with the approval of the group's provincial leader. The demotion does not become effective until the results of the demotion decision have been communicated to the Imperial Prime Minister and verified by that officer. Once the Imperial Prime Minister has verified the self-demotion, and made it official, the group immediately drops down to the next lower group size (duchy becomes a barony, barony a shire).

5.D.a.1. No group may self-demote more than one step in any given reign (of that group).

5.E. No province as a whole may be considered part of another Kingdom of Amtgard or part of another province of the IM. That is, a shire may not, as a whole, be part of a duchy. Instead, the shire is part of the Empire.

5.F. Should a group fail to follow Corpora requirements regarding qualification of officers, holding Crown Qualification Tourney, or payment of taxation, the Emperor, upon agreement from the Imperial Prime Minister, may immediately place the group on probation for demotion, once the Imperial Prime Minister has verified the breach(es) of Corpora requirements. If these Corpora requirements are not met by, or at, the beginning of the next reign of the group in question, (i.e. if another set of officers is elected without the correct qualifications, without holding Crown Qualification Tourney, or without taxation payment to the Empire), that group shall be immediately demoted by one size (duchy to barony, barony to shire).

Appendix C:

1 – Principalities

1.A. Definition

1.A.a. A Principality is a confederation of Sponsored Provinces in the same geographic area that is working toward the goal of becoming a Kingdom.

1.B. Requirements

1.B.a. In order to become a principality, there must have at least 60 different people per month claiming one of the groups in the Principality as a home province. This number includes both contributing members and populace but a player must sign-in to be counted. Associate members are not counted as part of this total.

- 1.B.b. At least one of the Sponsored Provinces that makes up the Principality must be a Duchy.
  - 1.B.c. At least one Sponsored province must have been in existence for at least three years. (Contract date)
  - 1.B.d. Every province of a Principality must be within 500 miles of every other province in the Principality..
  - 1.B.e. No member of the Principality may be within 150 miles of the Denver City limits.
  - 1.B.f. There is no requirement for IM sponsored provinces inside this distance to be part of the principality.
  - 1.B.g. Should a principality be strong and successful, the Iron Mountains will support them for Kingdom Status but that transition requires approval from the Amtgard BOD and from 75% of the monarchs of existing kingdoms.
  - 1.B.f. Should an addendum to the core iron mountains corpora be passed that effects the way the Core operates the Principality corpora shall also be amended to reflect those changes as to allow both the core and the principalities to function the same.
- 1.C. The Creation of a Principality.
- 1.C.a. All groups seeking to form a Principality must do so by a majority vote of their provincial Allthing. Likewise groups that seek to join a principality later must also elect to do so by a majority of their provincial allthing.
  - 1.C.b. The Duke of the largest province in the principality provides a summary of the sponsored groups listing their locations, numbers, founding date, and the results of their provincial allthings to the Emperor and Imperial Prime Minister
  - 1.C.c. The Emperor and Imperial Prime Minister must agree that that the groups meet the requirements for a principality and are ready for promotion.
  - 1.C.d. The Imperial allthing approves the principality by a simple majority.
  - 1.C.e. Thereafter, the principality does not take effect until after the first principality crown qualifications have been held and the first Prince and Principality Prime minister have been elected.
- 1.D. The Imperial Allthing may revoke a Principality's status by a simple majority.
- 1.D.a. The Imperial Prime Minister is responsible for notifying the officers of a principality as well as the officers of each sponsored province in that principality if such a proposal is made to the Imperial Allthing.
  - 1.D.b. Should a Principality choose to dissolve or be revoked by the Imperial Allthing, the individual Sponsored Provinces that make up the principality remain IM sponsored provinces until that relationship is specifically terminated by the province or by the Emperor and Imperial Prime Minister.
- 1.E. Removal of a group from a principality.
- 1.E.a. A province may choose to remove themselves from a Principality by a majority vote of the provincial allthing. Also any group that leaves Amtgard or leaves the Empire of the Iron Mountains automatically leaves any IM Principality it is a part of.

- 1.E.b. A Principality may not remove groups that want to remain in the Principality. The Emperor and Imperial PM may remove a province from the Iron Mountains per the IM corpora and this consequently removes them from the principality.

Iron Mountains Principalities follow all the rules in the IM corpora with the following additions and exceptions.

1. Club Membership – There are within Iron Mountains' principalities three kinds of membership.

  - 1.G. Individuals who do not pay dues will be considered non-paying members or populace. Non-paying members may attend Amtgard game-days, feasts, camp-outs, and other activities. They do not have any voting rights in their province or in their principality, nor may they run for or hold any club office. They must meet the following limited criteria:
    - 1.G.a. Must have a waiver signed and on file with the provincial record-keeper.
    - 1.G.b. Must abide by the Amtgard Rules of Play as well as all mundane law while engaged in Amtgard activities.

    - 1.H.b. Members who pay dues in a province but are considered populace because they do not meet attendance requirements will still be entitled to receive one copy of the rulebook and corpora per reign as required and a copy of each issue of the provincial newsletter (if any exists).
2. Attendance Credits
    - 2.A. Class Credits
      - 2.A.a. If you travel more than 200 miles (one way) you can get one extra credit for a single day event. As with everything else in this section this is limited by 2.A.f.
      - 2.A.b. Provincial leaders may approve extra credits but may not exceed the limits

- in 2.A.f.
- 2.A.c. Fighter Practices give you 1/4 credit a practice. Any class you are eligible for, no limits aside from those in 2.A.f.
  - 2.A.d. One credit is given out per week for normal Amtgard weekly game-days.
  - 2.A.e. Interkingdom or multi-day events give you one credit per day unless your provincial monarch or the Emperor/Empress says otherwise. (Within the limits of 2.A.f)
  - 2.A.f. Using any or all of these sources there is a limit of 6 class credits per month, unless there are five Saturdays or five Sundays in that month in which case the absolute limit is 7 class credits for that month. Credit may only be given for a class that was actually played except when special events such as tournaments and quests preclude all battlegames. Monsters must always be played for credit to be given in this class.
- 2.B. Sign-in or voting credits
- 2.B.a. Must have signed in at any province or provinces that were part of the Principality for a game-day or event at least 6 times in the last 6 months to vote in Principality elections.
  - 2.B.b. Must be dues paid in any principality province to vote in Principality elections.
  - 2.B.c. Must have signed-in in a province or event at least 6 times in the last 6 months to vote in that province's elections.
  - 2.B.d. Must be dues paid in a province to vote in that Province's elections.
3. Dues and the policies of the treasury
- 3.A. Dues shall be paid to the provincial level record-keeping officer.
  - 3.B. Dues shall consist of $5 per provincial reign and will grant voting membership (contributing or associate as appropriate) within the province during that reign.
  - 3.C. Individuals do not pay dues directly to the Principality.
  - 3.D. Donations may be made to either the Principality or to a province. Donations directly to the Principality should be given to the Principality Prime Minister and provincial donations should be made to the provincial record-keeper. Donations are money given over and above the dues structure, for which no dues credit is taken. Provincial donations need not be forwarded to the Principality and are not taxed in any way.
  - 3.E. For taxation each province will owe money to the Principality at the beginning of the provincial reign (after the cost of the coronation event). This tax is based on the number of dues paid members (contributing and associate) during the last reign. Forty Percent of each contributing and associate member's dues will be paid to the Principality. This is how the individual's Principality dues are paid and this process entitles the member to the benefits of contributing membership in the principality.
  - 3.F. If a province cannot pay this taxation, the Principality has the right to withhold whatever is owed next time disbursement happens. Repeated failure to pay this taxation to the Empire may constitute grounds for withdrawing Principality support from a province, although this would currently require the approval of the Empire of the Iron Mountains as well.

4. Disbursement of Principality Excess
  - 4.A. A Principality must have a bank account.
  - 4.B. Since much of the life of the Principality will go on at the provincial level and since money sitting in the bank doesn't really do Amtgarders any good; the Principality will periodically disburse excess monies back to the provinces.
    - 4.B.a. At the beginning of each Principality reign, if there is any money in the treasury above the Bank Limit set by the principality, the Principality will distribute it to provinces.
    - 4.B.b. The Principality Bank limit shall be $1000 upon acceptance into the Iron Mountains. After that the number may be changed by Principality allthing.
  - 4.C. Each principality province will receive shares of the excess based on size.
Duchies will receive three shares, baronies two shares and shires one share.
5. Provinces – Principality provinces are always Iron Mountains sponsored provinces and as such must follow all rules laid out in section 5 of the IM corpora. In addition the following applies only to provinces that are part of a principality.
  - 5.A. Iron Mountains Principalities do not have sponsored and core provinces.
Provinces are either part of the principality or they are just Iron Mountains sponsored provinces.
  - 5.B. Elevation
    - 5.B.a. Any group may petition to grow in size as long as they can prove their readiness to the Prince/Princess and the Principality Prime Minister. They need to prove that they have met the attendance requirements for 3 months.
    - 5.B.b. Only the approval of the Prince/Princess and the Principality PM is required to elevate a group who is a member of a principality from a shire to a Barony.
    - 5.B.c. Elevation to Duchy Status
      - 5.B.c.1. The Prince/Princess and the Principality Prime Minister can elevate a province within the Principality to Duchy Status by agreement. They must inform the Emperor and the Imperial Prime Minister within a week of such elevation.
      - 5.B.c.2. The Emperor and the Imperial Prime Minister, may veto a groups elevation to duchy. If they do so they must provide written justification to the Prince/Princess, Principality Prime Minister and elected leader of the affected province within two weeks of being informed of the elevation.
    - 5.B.d. Bringing in new groups.
      - 5.B.d.1. The Prince/Princess and the Principality Prime Minister can bring a new group into the Principality (and thus the Iron Mountains) by agreement. They must inform the Emperor and the Imperial Prime Minister within a week of such a decision.
      - 5.B.d.2. The Emperor and the Imperial Prime Minister may veto bringing such a group into the Empire. If they do so they must provide written justification to the Prince/Princess, Principality Prime Minister and elected leader of the affected province within two weeks of being informed of their joining.

5.C. Demotion - Principality provinces will be demoted in the same way as any other sponsored IM province.

5.D. No province as a whole may be considered part of both an Iron Mountains Principality and of the IM Core.

6. Principality Officers.

6.A. The required officers of a Principality consist of the Prince/Princess, Principality Consort, and Principality Prime Minister.

6.A.a. These officers follow the rules laid out in the IM corpora for Imperial Officers of the same types (as per sections 6, 7, & 8) with the following exceptions.

6.A.a.1. In all cases replace the word Imperial with the word Principality so that the officers act across the principality with the same duties and privileges as the Imperial officers act across the Imperial core.

6.A.a.2. Awards that may be awarded by the Prince/Princess of a principality are limited as follows:

6.A.a.2.1. Titles of nobility up to and including Count.

6.A.b.2. Garber and Smith (up to the 10th level)

6.A.b.3. May create new honors in keeping with his or her office.

6.A.c. The Prince/Princess of a Principality may receive the title of Count/Countess after his or her term is over based on good and valuable service in the position. Other principality officers may be eligible for titles as per the same Duchy offices.

6.A.d. The Prince of a Principality is also responsible for coordinating and communicating with the greater Empire. He is responsible for communicating the Principality calendar within a week of its adoption and for assisting provinces within the principality and then soliciting Imperial help should it be required.

6.B. A Principality allthing may agree to have other officers that also mimic the Imperial officers as appropriate. Principality Champions, Principality Guildmasters of Reeves and Principality Class guild-masters fall under this category. These officers also follow the rules of the analogous Imperial officers by replacing the word Imperial with Principality.

  - 6.C.b.3.1. The Principality Prime Minister must accept ballot proposals for the Principality Allthing until 2 weeks before the allthing ballots are scheduled to go out to the provinces, which marks the start of the actual allthing. He or she may require them in writing and may choose to accept them later if he or she wishes as long as they can get on the ballots.
  - 6.C.b.3.2. No eligible voter may place more than five items before a single allthing.

No proxies will be accepted and only those physically present will be allowed to vote in this final part to the Principality Allthing.
